10 KEVIN JOSEPH SMITH,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 ELDON VAIL,

14 Defendant.

No. C10-5614RJB/JRC

ORDER DENYING PENDING MOTIONS

15 This is a civil rights action brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiff has been 16 granted leave to proceed with this action in forma pauperis. The court has just entered a Report
17 and Recommendation that this action should be dismissed. Before the court are plaintiff's
18 motions for appointment of counsel, or in the alternative, for 21-day notice on motions (ECF No.
19 15); and a motion to strike material (ECF No. 20).

21 There is no right to have counsel appointed in cases brought under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.
22 Although the court can request counsel to represent a party, 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e) (1), the court
23 may do so only in exceptional circumstances. Wilborn v. Escalderon, 789 F.2d 1328, 1331 (9th
24 Cir. 1986); Franklin v. Murphy, 745 F.2d 1221, 1236 (9th Cir. 1984); Aldabe v. Aldabe, 616
25 F.2d 1089 (9th Cir. 1980). A finding of exceptional circumstances requires an evaluation of both

ORDER - 1

1 the likelihood of success on the merits and the ability of the plaintiff to articulate his claims pro
2 se in light of the complexity of the legal issues involved. Wilborn, 789 F.2d at 1331.

3 Plaintiff has demonstrated an adequate ability to articulate his claims pro se and, given the 4 pending Report and Recommendation, the court finds there is little chance of success on the 5 merits. Therefore, the motion to appoint counsel is DENIED.

6 Plaintiff also asks the court to give him 21 days notice on motions because of his health
7 (ECF No. 15). If plaintiff needs additional time to respond to a motion, he may file a motion for 8 an extension of time. A motion that alters the Rules for an entire case is not the proper
9 mechanism for making a request for extension. Therefore, the motion is DENIED.

10 Plaintiff also moves to strike materials submitted by defendant in reply to his response to 11 the motion to dismiss (Motion to Strike ECF No. 20). Plaintiff argues that the defense is 12 incorrect in arguing that he had a state remedy available. He argues that his tort claim was 13 denied. Plaintiff misperceives the nature of the tort claim process. The denial of his tort claim
14 by the Risk Management Office allowed plaintiff to file a tort claim in the State Superior Court
15 suing the State of Washington Department of Corrections. As pointed out in the Report and 16 Recommendation, both processes are available to him, and both are prerequisites to filing this 17 action.

18 Plaintiff also argues that the state re-opened his account and took money; this issue is not
19 part of this action as it was not in the complaint. The motion to strike material is DENIED.

20 The Clerk is directed to send copies of this Order to Plaintiff.

21 DATED this 1st day of December, 2010.
